

DATE: April 2022
POSITION: Neurology Sales Specialist

LOCATION: Multiple locations available; inquire with HR@impelnp.com
REPORTS TO: Regional Sales Manager
FLSA STATUS: Exempt
DEPARTMENT: Sales

Who We Are:

At Impel Pharmaceuticals we are focused on developing and commercializing transformative therapies for people living with central nervous system (CNS) disorders through the pioneering of an optimized approach to drug delivery. Our investigational therapies are enabled by the Company's proprietary upper nasal delivery technology, known as the Precision Olfactory Delivery, [or POD[®], device.](#)

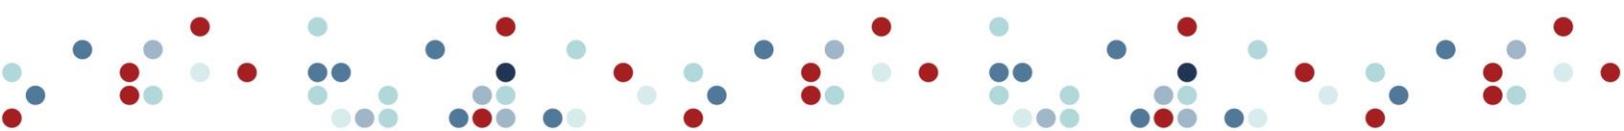

Accountability Objective:

We are looking for top-performing Neurology Sales Specialists (NSS) with a competitive spirit, experience in new drug product launch, and a strong track record of success. You will join an energetic, nimble, and performance-based team supporting the launch of our first commercial product. This is an opportunity to own your geography (no mirror) and introduce a new technology in a dynamic and competitive market.

The Neurology Sales Specialists report to a team of dedicated and seasoned Regional Sales Managers and are responsible for driving performance in top headache centers, neurology accounts and only the most productive primary care accounts.

ESSENTIAL DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES includes the following.

- Operate with a sense of urgency to drive appropriate utilization of TRUDHESA by working both independently and collaboratively with colleagues
- Anticipate potential barriers to achievement of goals and propose responsible solutions for success
- Develop and implement data driven and effective customer specific territory plans with Regional Sales Managers
- Expertly deliver in-person (virtual if necessary) approved product, access, and corporate messaging
- Effectively anticipate and handle customer objections and exceed customer expectations by delivering value to Health Care Professionals and accounts
- Maintain expert knowledge on territory managed care/access environment and partner with the Managed Markets team to implement and measure push and pull-through initiatives that support achieving sales objectives
- Develop and maintain strong relationships with key opinion leaders in region
- Provide relevant, thoughtful input to other commercial colleagues (e.g., sales leadership, regional sales managers) regarding strategic and tactical planning for territory, region, and nation

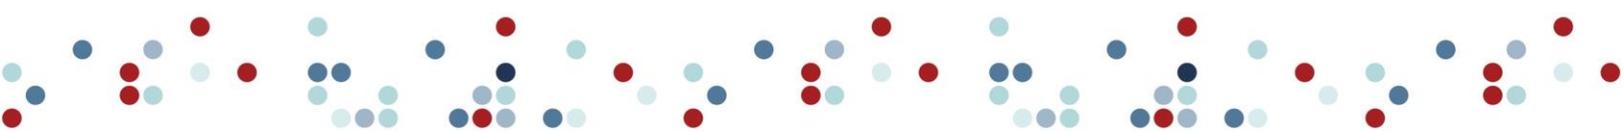

- Understand the regulatory environment and comply with all legal and regulatory requirements, including those of the Food, Drug and Cosmetic Act, the Prescription Drug Marketing Act, the Pharma Code, the OIG guidelines
- Present a positive and professional image of Impel Pharmaceuticals and ensure activities are consistent with Impel Pharmaceuticals' ethical pharmaceutical marketing and compliance laws and regulations
- Oversee the proper utilization of corporate resources and assets
- Perform all activities within budget

EDUCATION, EXPERIENCE AND/OR SKILLS REQUIRED

- Bachelor's degree
- At least 3 years of pharmaceutical specialty sales experience
 - Prefer Migraine experience or Neurology
 - Prefer experience working with specialty pharmacy
- Proven track record of launch success – prior awards key!
- Current knowledge of all relevant industry, legal and regulatory compliance guidelines
- Ability to travel up to 50% including overnight travel
- Must possess (and maintain) a valid driver's license
- COVID-19 vaccination: An essential requirement of the NSS is conducting in-person visits, meetings, training, educational sessions, and other in-person communications with HCPs and other healthcare customers. At this time, many HCPs, other healthcare customers and institutions requiring credentialing, are prohibiting in-person visits without proof of completed vaccination against COVID-19. Accordingly, proof of vaccination against COVID-19 is an essential requirement to be hired for this role.
